During this program, you will learn about diverse international practice areas from the perspective of panelists at a variety of federal agencies. If you're interested in learning about government opportunities that exist for international practice, you won't want to miss this program! We are pleased to be joined by the following co-sponsors: American Society of International Law; Washington Foreign Law Society; International Lawyers Network; Women in International Trade; and Washington International Trade Association. The ABA Section of International Law is also a cooperating entity. Thank you to Clifford Chance LLP for hosting the event. Light appetizers will be served.

Thank You to Our Co-Sponsors!
